

---

Public events

---

On the occasion of the centenary celebration of the independence of the Republic, Charles University has prepared a wide range of events for the general public.

They include exhibitions, festivals, commented tours, roundtables and lectures.

We have prepared a quiz contest for secondary school students, and the youngest ones will enjoy our children's day.